Petersburg Legends Historical Park & Nature Sanctuary Mural Project - Call for Artists

Petersburg Legends Park - MURAL PROJECT

Petersburg City Council voted to rename Lee Memorial Park to Petersburg Legends Historical Park and Nature Sanctuary. “This renaming is to honor the athletic legends from Petersburg who played and trained at the park.”

A mural to depict athletic legends from Petersburg, Virginia will be displayed at the entrance of the park. The City of Petersburg is seeking requests for proposals for the mural. Murals will be painted, vintage or contemporary, and should reflect the people, culture and spirit of Petersburg Legends. (City of Petersburg will provide the names for the Mural and all other pertinent information. The selected mural will serve as a community celebration for years to come.

Project Description

The City of Petersburg will commission qualified artists to design a mural that local residents can enjoy and a mural that attract visitors. The goal of the Petersburg Legends Mural Project is to create public art that conveys a piece of the story of Petersburg Legends. The piece should represent Petersburg Legends in their Petersburg High School Jersey with their number affixed to the jersey. The mural should celebrate the Legends. (list will be provided to the awardee)

Legends of Petersburg Historical Park Petersburg is a city rich in history and Crimson Wave community pride. The Legends of Petersburg Historical Park is a District Park with over 6,000 users per year. The park offers several amenities, including Wilcox Lake, picnic shelters, walking trails, Cooper Memorial Baseball Field, a bath house, and wildflower sanctuaries.

The Petersburg community boasts a quality of life at The Legends of Petersburg Historical Park for its (active/passive recreation) and the park is known for its outstanding History (from prehistoric fossil beds to the Civil Rights struggles of the 1950’s from Civil War defense lines to one of the most significant WPA projects in the nation). In addition, many Petersburg High School Athletes and Legends of Petersburg Historical Park graced Lee Park with their talent over the years.
